Dr. Vuong Quan Hoang
DHVP Research & Consultancy
3/161, Thinh Quang
Dong Da, Hanoi, Vietnam

Dear Dr. Vuong,

It is my pleasure to invite you to join the Editorial Board of the ASEAN Journal of Management & Innovation. This is a new academic journal will launch publication in June, 2014.

The goal of the ASEAN Journal of Management & Innovation (AJMI) is to publish insightful, original and timely research that describes or potentially impacts management or innovation and that has the potential to be applied in the ASEAN context. Topics that are either distinctly ASEAN-related, or are regional or international in scope are encouraged. AJMI is multidisciplinary in scope and interdisciplinary in research methodology and content. It will publish two issues per year.

This is a three-year appointment beginning March 1, 2014, and it comes with an obligation to provide editorial guidance on themes for issues, editorial policies, and other guidance needed to publish a world-class, international publication, to encourage paper submissions among your colleagues and to publish one paper or commentary during the term of appointment.

Please indicate your acceptance by signing and returning a scanned copy of this letter.

Warm regards,

Dolly Samian, Ph.D.
Editor, ASEAN Journal of Management & Innovation
Assistant President, Stamford International University

Accepted:
